Gospel Reflection

I AM THE LIVING BREAD
 THAT CAME DOWN FROM HEAVEN;
 WHOEVER EATS THIS BREAD
 WILL LIVE FOREVER.

JOHN 6:51

THE BREAD OF LIFE

Chapter 6 in John’s Gospel is often referred to as the Bread of Life discourse, perhaps because this is where Jesus makes his strongest claims for being the bread that has come down from heaven, bringing eternal life for those who believe in him. This is one source of our belief in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. In the first reading, the prophet Elijah has come to the brink of despair, but an angel comes with food and tells him to eat, “else the journey will be too long for you.” The Responsorial Psalm is from Psalm 34; from very early on, the Church has applied the line, “Taste and see how good the Lord is” to the Eucharist. The second reading describes an ideal Christian community characterized by mutual love and service, which is the greatest fruit of its eucharistic celebrations.

THE READINGS AT MASS DON’T ALWAYS SEEM TO FIT TOGETHER

On the greatest feasts and solemnities of the Church’s liturgical year, the three readings are chosen to all apply to the theme or the event being celebrated. During Ordinary Time, however, only the Jewish scriptures/Old Testament selections are chosen to go with the Gospel. The second reading makes its way independently through the New Testament letters and often appears to have a very different message.

Today’s readings, however, present us with that happy coincidence of a Sunday in Ordinary Time when all three readings are very much closely connected—a connection that we might describe as God’s generosity in nurturing the people so that they can in turn “nourish” each other by their acts of service and charity.

BUT TODAY THEY DO

In John’s Gospel, Jesus insists over and over that he is the bread of life; when he sees that some of his listeners find this hard to believe, he insists on it even more strongly. Note that centuries before the Christians celebrate Jesus as the Bread of Life in the Eucharist, the psalmist sings, “Taste and see how good the Lord is!”

John’s Gospel contains no blessing of the Bread and Cup that the Church uses to consecrate the bread and wine. What John does have is Jesus washing the feet of the disciples and commanding them to wash each other’s feet, which is to say, to serve each other without regard to station or rank. He also gives a long, prayerful discourse in which he gives the “new commandment” to love one another. Receiving Holy Communion is much more than a “me and Jesus” moment, although that is undoubtedly a precious encounter. Ultimately, our reception of the Bread of Life attains its fullness only in our mutual love and service in our communities and beyond.

God fed Elisha to strengthen him on his journey. God fed the Israelites with manna on their journey in the wilderness. Today, we receive from God the Bread of Life for strength in whatever journey we are on.

Faith Formation News

I was very encouraged by Bishop Ronald A. Hicks' vision for the Joliet Diocese that he communicated in the August 2021 Christ Is Our Hope magazine. His words speak directly to our Faith Formation ministry.

Catechesis - "Catechesis resides in our intellect...We are called to be lifelong learners about faith, for there is always something more to learn"

Evangelization – "This movement flows from the head to the heart. It motivates us not only to know about Jesus, but also to know and love Him."

Faith into Action – "For, if we know about God and also know and love Jesus, then we will want to love God and our neighbor. We will be propelled and compelled to minister and to serve others."

After reading his encouraging words, I wanted to share the Little White Book reflection from the Easter season (Year B). See below.

Love, Kathy Halloran

May 21, 2021 Friday, Seventh Week of Easter

Jesus said: "As you sent me into the world, so I sent them into the world." (Jn 17:18)

Just as Jesus was sent by the Father, Jesus is sending me to continue his work.

In the eyes of the world, Jesus had no more credentials than I might have.

He was not authorized as a religious leader.

He didn't have special theological training.

He wasn't rich or powerful.

He wasn't even famous.

But despite his son's lack of human credentials, the Father sent Jesus.

The words from the Scripture today ring in my ears: "As the Father has sent me so I send you." Jesus has called me to be part of his work.

Jesus understands my struggle to live what I believe in while I am in this world. In his prayer, just hours before his death, he says, "I'm with you."

I don't travel with him . . . He travels with me in the circumstances of my day-to-day life as I try to do what he ' has sent me to do.

Pope Francis proclaims “Year of St Joseph” from Dec. 8, 2020 to Dec. 8, 2021

Prayer to Saint Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church

O GLORIOUS St. Joseph, you were chosen by God to be the reputed father of Jesus, the most pure Spouse of Mary, ever Virgin, and Head of the Holy Family. You have been chosen by Christ’s Vicar as the heavenly Patron and Protector of the Church founded by Christ. Therefore, with the greatest confidence I implore your powerful assistance for the whole Church Militant. Protect, in a special manner, with true fatherly love, the Sovereign Pontiff and all the bishops and priests in communion with the See of Peter. Be the protector of all who labor for souls amid the trials and tribulations of this life; and grant that all the nations of the earth may submit with docility to that Church out of which there is no salvation. Dearest St. Joseph, accept the offering I now make of myself to you. I dedicated myself to your service, that you may ever be my Father, my Protector and my Guide in the way of salvation. Obtain for me great purity of heart and a fervent love for the interior life. Grant that, after your example, all my action may be directed to the greater glory of God, in union with the divine Heart of Jesus, the Immaculate Heart of Mary, and your own paternal heart. Finally, pray for me that I may share in the peace and joy of your holy death. Amen.

Our Faithfully Departed Rosemary Paulin, Henry Albert Link and Those who died from COVID-19.
