TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Heed the voice of the LORD. It is something very near to you, already in your hearts; you only need to carry it out (Deuteronomy 30:10-14).

Psalm — Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live (Psalm 69) or Psalm 19.

Second Reading — All things were created through and for Christ Jesus (Colossians 1:15-20).

Gospel — To be a neighbor, show love by treating others with mercy, as did the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37).

IN OUR HEARTS AND MINDS

Love God. Love neighbor. This is our call, the sum of all it means to live as Christ’s holy people in the world. Moses told the people that the law—all that sums up this call to love God and neighbor—isn’t far off, something distant and hard to reach. It is in our hearts and minds, on our lips. We have only to live what has been instilled in us through the grace of God and the power of the Holy Spirit, the fullness of God’s love that dwells in us through Christ. We who are baptized into Christ’s life rely on this presence as we extend ourselves in service as did the Samaritan who saw the need of the injured traveler and stopped everything to give comfort, care, and mercy. Such love of neighbor is an outpouring and sign of the love of Christ.

LOVE GOD

What does it mean to love God with all our heart, being, strength, and mind? We turn our hearts to God in prayer, quiet moments of reflection, and participation in the Mass and sacraments. Our whole being may turn to the Lord in trust in the midst of troubled times or when we need courage. We find strength to live as Christ’s people, even when faced with the questions, doubts, and derision of others. We may turn to the Lord with our mind as we prayerfully read sacred scripture and learn more fully the teaching of the Church. All of these things point to a singular desire to know God deeply. The love we have for God is, after all, a reflection of the great love God has for each of us.

LOVE NEIGHBOR

Jesus’ parable of the Good Samaritan points to the impact our love of God is to have in our lives. The priest and Levite were more concerned with observing the letter of the law rather than living its essence. The Samaritan found himself unable to pass by without coming to the traveler’s aid. Who are the travelers whom we meet? What is our response? Are we so filled with the love of God that we cannot ignore the suffering of hunger or homelessness, the needs of the lonely and sick? Loving God necessitates loving our neighbor. We cannot have one without the other. Jesus shows us that the love we are to share is selfless, sacrificial. The Samaritan not only cared for the traveler’s wounds, but took him to find shelter and paid for his care. He went the extra mile on the journey of faith. Who is your neighbor today? How will you love him or her?

PARISH/DIOCESAN NEWS

Hello! Eucharistic Ministers to the Homebound

My name is Joanne Bade, and as the recorder for Eucharistic Ministers to the Homebound for the parish, I am asking for you take a minute and simply text or email your name and name of the person to whom you are bringing the Eucharist. This will allow our list to be current. (Also, a way to communicate if you have a question/concern.)

Bringing Eucharist to the homebound is truly a blessed ministry, both for the receiver and you, the minister. (I know, as I brought Eucharist to the homebound during the 80's and early 90's here at St. A's.)

Thank you for your ministry, jbade2000@yahoo.com or 630 235 3562

It is in Baptism that one is welcomed into a community of faith.

As a parish community,

"WE WELCOME YOU."

Thank You!

Several people are retiring from Parish Council this June, and we would like to extend our gratitude to them for a job well done! Thank you to John Bouckaert, Pam Baldwin, and Joyce Splan for their many years of service on Parish Council. We'd also like to thank Cathy Sewell, our previous Parish Council president, who stepped down late last fall. These four people have dedicated themselves to St. Alexander Parish in many ways over the last several years--from serving on committees, to planning hospitality events, to attending meetings, to putting in countless hours of time and energy to help make St. Alexander Church a better place for all of us.

John, Pam, Joyce, and Cathy, we sincerely thank you for all that you've done for this parish.

Guide Book & Directory Advertising Opportunity

We are in the process of updating our annual Guide Book & Directory for the church. This book will contain everything pertinent to our church: the various ministries, organizations, committees, activities, functions and events plus a complete directory of all members. This book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our church, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please email the Parish Office: office@stalexanderparish.org.

Recent survey results by Guide Book Publishing show that 92.1% of families would rather patronize a Guide Book & Directory advertiser over a non-advertiser. It "will pay" to advertise in our new Guide Book & Directory.

PARISH REGISTRATION

Why register with St. Alexander Parish?

Faith is a Journey, not a Destination. Registering with the parish is a commitment to your Faith Journey and St. Alexander’s would like to walk with you.

Benefits to registering as a Parishioner:

1. Registration helps you stay connected with the parish, builds community and helps the parish stay connected with you.
2. Other parishes (including St. Alexander) often request verification of a person’s status as a practicing Catholic, attendance at Mass, sacraments, etc., when that person has been asked to be a Godparent or Confirmation Sponsor. Without registration, no such verification can be made.
3. Census numbers may determine how many priests are assigned to a parish and how many Masses and enrichment programs are planned and scheduled.

IT'S SAFE. IT'S SIMPLE. IT'S CONVENIENT.
